Far Out. Nearby.

Whether it’s communion with nature, creative expression or physical and spiritual rejuvenation, people who come to Ukiah are seeking an escape from the usual.

The beautiful scenery, the community of free thinkers, world-class cultural venues, outdoor recreation, and a beautifully restored historic downtown have created a magical place where expression is a tradition and a way of life. This is where ranching families live alongside ex-hippies, artists, musicians and winemakers.

Located just two hours north of San Francisco, Ukiah is a unique small town of 15,000 that charms you with its rich character, arts, vineyards and natural surroundings. Named California’s best small town and the sixth best in the entire country, Ukiah beckons you to explore all that the valley has to offer amidst our 300 days of annual sunshine.

In Ukiah, there are no lines, and there is no reason to wait to plan your next memorable vacation experience here.
Get Down

Shop, Wine and Dine in Historic Downtown Ukiah...
Eclectic & Fun

Ukiah’s revitalized historic downtown is the backdrop for an exciting blend of arts, entertainment, cuisine, specialty shops and a down-to-earth functionality that only a small town can provide. Our scenic, tree-lined streets are also host to a well-rounded special events calendar. You won’t want to miss a thing.

Shopping

Ukiah may be small but it’s open-minded and big enough in spirit for a wide variety of businesses. No chain stores here, only a vibrant collection of family-owned boutiques that sell the latest fashions, rare books, music and gifts for visitors of all ages.

Dining

The reputation for food in Ukiah just keeps getting better. And, our restaurant options continue to grow by the month. Many of our restaurants serve local, organically grown produce, meats and, of course, wines. In Ukiah, we were organic before organic was cool.

When you can enjoy a Zagat-acclaimed restaurant down the street from the second certified organic restaurant in California, you know you have a food scene that can only be described as eclectic. And delicious.
Keep The Faith.

Explore More Than 30 Tasting Rooms in the Ukiah Area...
Wineries

Ukiah is home to the nation’s first organic winery (Frey Vineyards), greenest winery (Parducci), the leading brandy (Germain-Robin), and is centrally located to over 30 tasting rooms.

Experience wine from America’s Greenest Wine Region in casual, intimate settings. Most tastings are free and you’ll rarely have to wait. And, most likely, you’ll meet the winery owners and winemakers in person!

Microbreweries

Ukiah is also home to award-winning pioneers of the microbrew world. Ukiah Brewing Company, located in the heart of Historic Downtown Ukiah, was the nation’s first certified organic brewpub/restaurant in 2001.

Mendocino Brewery, also located in Ukiah, opened the first brewpub after Prohibition in California in 1983.

Also nearby, Anderson Valley Brewery embraces Boontling, the fun folk language native to the Anderson Valley.
Born To Be Wild.
